

We are looking for motivated and passionate HCPC Registered Educational Psychologists or current Year 3 Trainee Educational Psychologist to join us at such an exciting time of expansion.

Due to a rapid increase in demand, we are especially looking for clinicians in the Devon and Cornwall region. Both part-time and full-time opportunities are available.

Psychology Associates is a dynamic and creative independent practice where we are all committed to make a meaningful difference to people's lives.

Our Educational Psychologists work in a wide range of education, community and residential settings and with several national charities providing consultation, training, assessments, therapy and commissioned research.

If you are an individual who has excellent organisational and communication skills, highly motivated, a strong team player who has the ability to manage their workload and meet deadlines and you would like to be part of a multidisciplinary team and develop additional specialism in supporting complex trauma, we would love to hear from you!

For an informal chat with our Lead Educational Psychologist, Emma Corrigan, please call us on 01752 581001.

We have several posts available from newly qualified to experienced, full or part time. We are a family friendly practice and committed to improving diversity and welcome all applicants.

Salary: dependent on experience

To apply, please request an application pack by emailing

Marie.Grigg@psychologyassociates.org.uk

CVs alone cannot be accepted and a completed application form is required.

An Enhanced DBS check will be completed.

This recruitment may close earlier once we have received sufficient applications.

In those circumstances the interview date and closing date may be subject to change.

As a recently qualified Educational Psychologist I have found working at PA to be incredibly supportive and rewarding. By working in the private sector at PA I have had the opportunity to work in a range of contexts and undertake a wide variety of exciting work. – Dr Adam Lewis-Cole, Educational Psychologist at Psychology Associates
